

REFUGE IN KENTUCKY CHURCH, HIGHER LEVEL SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

The Presidential Series

A Warning From Someone Who Rises

Shimar A. Keith

1/1/2009

Contents

I. The Good.....	3
A. Exodus 31: 12-18	3
B. [Jevonda Plays].....	3
C. Preamble	3
D. Jewish Philosophy: Maimonides	3
1. Rational commandments	3
2. Revealed commandments.....	3
E. Introduction: Nachmanides	3
1. Healthy (beri'ut) –	3
2. Genesis 2:[2-]3.....	3
3. Rest (vyenafesh).....	3
4. Genesis 2:2-3.....	3
II. The Bad – My Confession.....	3
III. The Ugly.....	3
A. Luke 16:19-31 (19, 25).....	3
B. Roman Private Life.....	3
C. “Meditation” from Thais	4
D. Luke 12:13-21 – The Opposite of the Sabbath.....	4
E. Matthew 23:23, 24.....	4

I. The Good

A. Exodus 31: 12-18

B. [Jevonda Plays]

C. Preamble

D. Jewish Philosophy: Maimonides

1. Rational commandments

a) Well-being of the intellect

b) Well-being of man's morals

2. Revealed commandments

E. Introduction: Nachmanides

1. Healthy (beri'ut) –

From the root “to create”.

2. Genesis 2:[2-]3

“...he ceased to perform all His creative work.”

3. Rest (vyenafesh)

Ensouled (to endow or imbue with a soul), breath, to catch one's breath, sweet fragrance, passion, and inner being of man

4. Genesis 2:2-3

‘God ensouled this day when He rested.’

II. The Bad – My Confession

III. The Ugly

A. Luke 16:19-31 (19, 25)

B. Roman Private Life

Each member of the nobility sought to be a patron

Legislative power required cooptation made possible by the networking and “public function”: protection and control. Evergetism.

C. “Meditation” from Thaïs

Athanaël tells Thaïs to love according to the spirit and not the flesh. After a long meditation she relents.

D. Luke 12:13-21 – The Opposite of the Sabbath

Storing up time for yourself but is not rich toward God.

E. Matthew 23:23, 24